

(University Pathway: Bridging Channel)

A. Fees (The Language Centre reserves the right to change fees as required)

1. English Program Application..... $150 (Payable at the time of application. Non-refundable.)
2. Tuition for one term of bridging $8,570 (Tuition Deposit plus Tuition Balance.)
 - a. Tuition Deposit $400 (Non-refundable after the Final Payment Deadline.)
 - b. Tuition Balance $8,170 (Payable by the Final Payment Deadline.)
3. One-time Housing Placement $275 (Payable by the Final Payment Deadline. Non-refundable.)
4. Homestay Occupancy (94 to 115 days)..... $2,706 to 3,233 (Payable by the Final Payment Deadline.)
5. Homestay daily rate..... $26 (Payable for each day beyond the length of homestay contract.)
6. Housing Damage Deposit..... $675 (Payable by credit card by the Final Payment Deadline. Refundable if conditions allow.)

*The application fee for undergraduate admission is $90 but it should be paid to International Admissions as part of the online application for degree studies.

B. Deadlines

1. Application Deadline: By this date you must send in the complete Application Package and appropriate fees.
Required items: Fillable Bridging Channel Application and Personal Profile form, Application Fee, and Tuition Deposit for one term of bridging.
* Documents for university admission should not be sent to the Language Centre but should be emailed to International Admissions or to your recruiter.
2. Final Payment Deadline: Contact the Language Centre to confirm your plans by this date.
This is the date by which you must either confirm your registration and pay fees; or, defer to the next term; or, cancel your registration.
To confirm registration (a) pay the Tuition Balance for one term of Bridging ($8,170), the Housing Placement Fee ($275), the Homestay Occupancy Fee, and the Housing Damage Deposit($675); and, (b) provide a copy of your visa for entry to Canada and your arrival information.
Students who must defer to a later term can have their Housing Placement Fee ($275) transferred to a later term at no additional cost.
3. Failure to Communicate
If you do not communicate with us about your plans by the Final Payment Deadline we will automatically cancel your space in both the English program and homestay. The Tuition Deposit and the Homestay Placement Fee will be forfeited unless proof is provided within 30 days that you have been denied documents necessary for entry to Canada. If you wish to study in a later term it will be necessary to make a new application.

C. Conditional Admission to U of S Undergraduate Study Through the Language Centre

1. If you meet the academic requirements you may be admitted to the university after you present evidence of English proficiency (IELTS 6.5 or TOEFL iBT 80: minimum scores of Reading-19, Writing-18, Speaking-18, Listening-19).
2. If you meet the academic requirements but do not meet the language requirement for admission to undergraduate degree programs you may be granted Conditional Admission to Arts & Science or Agriculture & Bioresources after you register for full time English study in the U of S Language Centre.
If you withdraw from the the Language Centre English program before you pass U-Bridge 2, your acceptance to the university will be withdrawn.
3. Applicants will normally receive two Letters of Acceptance (one for the English program and another for a degree program).

D. How To Apply

For University Pathway (Bridging Channel) and Conditional Admission to the U of S:

1. Complete the U of S online application and arrange to pay the $90 application fee. Go to: explore.usask.ca/admissions
Arrange to send transcripts by email to international admissions or to your recruiter.
2. Use the fillable forms to apply for English study in the U of S Language Centre. learnenglish.usask.ca/forms
Arrange to pay required fees by credit card or bank wire.

E. Homestay

1. During your first term you are asked to live with a homestay family. If you want to make your own housing arrangements or live in a University Residence you must complete and submit the Homestay Exemption Form.
2. You must complete the Personal Profile section of the Program Application package.
3. You have until the Final Payment Deadline to pay the non-refundable Housing Placement fee of $275. This fee can be transferred to a later term if you need to defer your attendance but it is non-refundable unless your application for a visa is denied.
4. Benefits of Homestay
 - Homestays provide airport pickup, a single private room and all meals.
 - A homestay provides a safe environment that helps you to succeed in your English studies.
 - Life in a homestay gives students support and assistance as they begin their adjustment to Canadian culture.
 - Living with Canadians increases opportunities for students to discuss and develop understanding of many aspects of Canadian life.
 - Living with a family gives students daily practice in English in the comfortable surroundings of a Canadian home.