Victoria Day holiday – Monday, May 23rd

The university will be closed, and classes cancelled on Monday, May 23rd to celebrate Victoria Day.

Since 1901, on the last Monday before May 25th, Canada celebrates the birthday of Queen Victoria.

Queen Victoria reigned for 64 years from 1837 – 1901 a record only surpassed by our current Queen Elizabeth II who is in her 71st year on the throne!

This holiday not only celebrates the former monarch, but it also signifies the unofficial start of summer in Canada. If you are looking for things to do this long weekend, there are many fun activities planned in Saskatoon.

Student Advising

Meet your Advisor: Lynn can help you with questions about the English program, university studies, problems that might happen during the term, or suggest campus or community resources.
