Poetry in action continued!

Last week, you enjoyed poetry by three EAP students who participated in a Creative Writing workshop with Lynn. This week, we have three more poems to share from a Café Poetry session!

Hardworking boy with smile and apron
Sitting, and looking Keep working and enjoying the atmosphere
`Maki

He dressed formal, fancy blue...
He is sitting in rich green sofa at the café drinking coffee...
He feeling lonely, he thinking about his family
-Maki

Young guy with appreciation smile on his face, wearing an apron.
Working on his laptop, or maybe chatting with a friend...
He might go back after his break, full of joy
-Yusra

Let us hear from you!

Over the next couple of weeks, there will be opportunities for students to share their thoughts about their student experience this term. This is a good time to practice your English and offer your thoughts about the services, classes and supports you have been offered. What did you like? What did you not like? What would you like to be improved?

Here is a little bit about each way you can participate. Your participation is encouraged!

SLEQ Survey	At the end of the term, check your email for a link to an online survey about your classes and teachers
Language Centre Experience	Lynn and Sanae will lead sessions during the Workshop timeslot where you can share what you like and suggest improvements!
